STATEMENT FROM CITY CONTROLLER CHRIS HOLLINS CONDEMNING MINNEAPOLIS ICE SHOOTING

"Yesterday in Minneapolis, a young mother was killed during a reckless operation carried out by militarized ICE agents. This was not an accident in the abstract - it was the foreseeable result of policy choices that treat human lives as collateral damage. When enforcement is driven by ideology instead of judgment, families are destroyed and communities are destabilized.

Renee Nicole Good should never have been put in harm's way, let alone turned into a symbol of this cruelty. We stand with her family, her loved ones, and the people of Minneapolis in grief and in anger. We should be demanding more of our government: more restraint, more accountability, and a basic respect for human dignity.

Here in Houston, cooperating with ICE beyond what the law requires does not make us safer. It fuels fear, erodes trust, and poisons relationships in one of the most diverse cities in America, where nearly one in four residents is an immigrant. The tactics we are seeing from ICE today have no place in a democracy and no place in the City of Houston."
