COUNCIL MEMBER THOMAS TO HOST THIRD ANNUAL DEED RESTRICTION WORKSHOP

HOUSTON, TX – The Office of Council Member Tiffany D. Thomas invites residents to attend the third annual Deed Restriction Workshop on Saturday, April 18, 2026, from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM at the Tracy Gee Community Center, located at 3599 Westcenter Drive, Houston, TX 77042.

This workshop aims to equip homeowners, civic leaders, and community stakeholders with practical knowledge about deed restrictions and how they impact neighborhood preservation, quality of life, and long-term community planning. Attendees are encouraged to bring copies of their deed restrictions and any questions they may have.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage directly with experts from:

- Rice & Rice Law Firm
- City of Houston Legal Department
- City of Houston Housing & Community Development Department
- Harris County Tax Assessor-Collector's Office
- Department of Neighborhoods
- Houston Public Works

“I am encouraging all homeowners, civic club leaders, and HOA community leaders to take advantage of this opportunity,” said Council Member Tiffany D. Thomas, District F. “District F is committed to empowering residents with the knowledge and tools they need to strengthen their neighborhoods. This workshop will not only address deed restrictions, but also provide vital information on home repair resources, public works processes, addressing blight, and more. An informed community is a resilient community, and we look forward to supporting residents as they take an active role in protecting and improving their neighborhoods.”

Breakfast and light refreshments will be provided. Guests are encouraged to register by April 11, 2026,
