

Final Status

Case Management terminology describes the outcomes of reviews or investigations, with categories such as inactivated, closed, cleared, and suspended.

