

can't-miss events during Fleet Week Houston

This inaugural celebration will bring vessels and more than 1,000 servicemembers to the city.

Houstonians and visitors will get the chance to tour USS Kearsarge (LHD-3), USS Minneapolis-St. Paul (LCS-21), USS St. Louis (LCS-19), and USCGC Edgar Culbertson (WPC-1137), which will be docked along the Houston Ship Channel. The event also presents an opportunity for Houston to welcome servicemembers through dozens of events across the community at schools, museums parks, ballgames, and more. Here are a few of the highlighted events:

April 15 PARADE OF SHIPS Seawolf Park Galveston

Watch the parade of ships into the Houston Ship Channel to kick-off the inaugural Fleet Week Houston, and welcome the more than 1,000 Sailors, Marines and Coast Guardsmen who will be participating in the week-long festivities. DETAILS

April 16 FLEET WEEK ON THE PLAZA

The Plaza at Avenida Houston, Downtown

Enjoy this free concert featuring live music from Houston's own The Suffers, Navy Band Southeast, and special guests. Guests can enjoy food trucks, games, photo ops, and more. DETAILS

April 18 & 19 FLEET WEEK HOUSTON AVIATION EXHIBIT

*Lone Star Flight
Museum, Ellington Airport Area*

Ellington Airport and Lone Star Flight Museum present a unique opportunity to see and interact with a variety of visiting Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard aircraft. This special static display will feature aircraft flown today, as well as historical examples of aviation in the sea services. DETAILS

April 18 & 19 FLEET WEEK EXPO

Post Houston Downtown

Experience each of the visiting sea services, as well as other public agencies, through interactive experiences, entertainment, talks, and demonstrations. The EXPO will also feature local Houston culture, food, experiences, businesses, and more. The EXPO will also serve as the launch point for the buses taking visitors to attend ship tours in the Port all week long. DETAILS

April 18 EAST END BLOCK PARTY Navigation Esplanade East End

Celebrate Fleet Week with a traditional carne asada (backyard barbecue) in Houston's historic East End. With live music, Lucha Libre wrestling, and BBQ from some of Houston's most well-respected pit masters, there's something for everyone. DETAILS

April 19 EXHIBITION AT SYLVAN BEACH

*Sylvan Beach Park
La Porte*

This is your chance to see the elite capabilities of our military up close through high-action demonstrations and interactive displays. Whether you're a military buff, a family looking for a Sunday adventure, or a proud Texan wanting to honor our service members, you'll want to see this exhibition. DETAILS

April 20 FLEET WEEK STREET FESTIVAL & DRONE SHOW

Main Street, Seabrook (Between Bryan Ave. and Toddville Road)

Seabrook's Main Street will come alive with a Street Festival & Fleet Week Drone Show, celebrating our nation's veterans and servicemembers. DETAILS

April 18 & 19 CONCERTS IN THE PARK Presented by ExxonMobil

A series of concerts will be held in local parks featuring ceremonial service bands. DETAILS

[FULL
EVENT
SCHEDULE](#)

[MORE ABOUT
U.S. NAVY](#)

[FOLLOW
US ON SOCIAL MEDIA](#)

